

Sentencing Vulnerable Populations

A refresher on best practice tips when making sentencing submissions.

Join us for an important review of sentencing principles and advice on resolution, discussion and processes, especially as they pertain to youth, Indigenous people and those struggling with mental health and/or addiction issues.

Space is limited for in person attendance.

Speakers

- Justice David E. Harris, SCJ
- Justice Sandra Martins, OCJ
- Nakita Kelsey (Defence)
- Aimee Gauthier (Youth Crown)
- Lucy Rasmussen (Mental Health Crown)
- Jennifer Graham (Drug Addiction Crown)

Moderators

- Shauna Pemberton, PLA Secretary

This session will contain a total of 1.5 EDI Professionalism Hours toward the Law Society of Ontario – Continuing Professional Development requirements (CPDs).

TUESDAY
MAY 28, 2024

4:30 PM - 6:00 PM

HYBRID

REGISTRATION FEE
(plus applicable taxes)

PLA MEMBER - $50.00

NON-MEMBER - $75.00

REGISTER HERE

Registration will close at 12:00 PM on May 28, 2024.

Registration and Cancellation Policy:

- Registration is limited to Lawyers, Articling Students and LPP/NCA Candidates.
- A registration form must be completed in full, for each person attending.
- You are not registered until your payment is received.
- No refunds will be issued unless 48 hours written notice is provided prior to the event.